

(g) of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1960 Supplement), title "Elections", sub-title "Voting Machines", eliminating the requirement in Cecil County that the name of the party must appear on the ballot in the party column under each candidate's name.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 122 (g) of Article 33 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1960 Supplement), title "Elections", sub-title "Voting Machines", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

122.

(g) In any election in Cecil County, the titles of offices shall be arranged vertically with the names of candidates for an office arranged opposite the title of his office in adjacent rows or columns under a party name or designation, so that the candidates of a particular party shall all appear in a vertical party column and opposite the respective offices for which they are candidates. The party name or designation at the top of the party column shall be printed in lettering not smaller than 36-point condensed bold face type. [The name of the party shall also appear in the party column under each individual candidate's name in not less than 8-point light face type.] Within each party column, the candidates for a particular office shall be separated from the candidates for any other office by a line of not less than 11-point bold face rule type. In the office column, the name of each office shall be placed as nearly as practicable in the center or middle of the space in the column for each such office.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1961.

Approved April 24, 1961.

CHAPTER 557

(House Bill 669)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 200 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Licenses", sub-title "Dog Licenses in the Counties", to make the provisions of State-wide dog licensing and control laws applicable in Calvert County except in the case of contrary local laws.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 200 of Article 56 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition), title "Licenses", sub-title "Dog Licenses in the Counties", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

200.

[Nothing in this subtitle shall apply to Calvert County.] The provisions of this subtitle shall be applicable in Calvert County, except
